

- team work
 - advising
 - understanding and implementation of policies
 - professionalism and office etiquette
 - application of theory to practice
3. Understand and develop an appreciation for a “generalist” approach to student activities through working with various staff within the department on cross functional projects

Graduate assistantships in the Office of Student Activities provide a learning laboratory for graduate students. The assistantship is designed to complement the academic experience and allow students to apply what they are learning in the classroom. While each position is unique, all Student Activities Graduate Assistants are expected to support and participate in major Student Activities and Student Experience & Engagement programs. These programs include but are not limited to:

1. Graduate Assistant training
2. Kickoff/Week of Welcome activities
3. Impact Leadership Retreat
4. Family Weekend
5. Homecoming
6. Admissions/Recruitment programs

Because of the nature of the compensation package each Office of Student Activities Graduate Assistant receives, they are expected to work to the completion of their tasks which is a minimum of 20 hours per week.