On your 2018/2019 FAFSA Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you indicated that at some point after you turned age 13, 1) neither your biological or adoptive parents were living; 2) you were in foster care (even though you may not be in foster care now); or 3) you were a legal ward/dependent of the court (even though you may not be a ward/dependent of the court now.) Please note that for the purposes of awarding federal financial aid, student who is/was incarcerated is NOT considered a ward of the court.

Your response to this FAFSA question must be verified before processing of your aid eligibility can continue. Therefore please submit documentation verifying at least one of the above circumstances. This can be a photocopy of a legal document

The required document or letter should be attached to this form which must be signed and dated below. All materials should then be submitted to Student Financial Services:
